

FALL 2021 TOURING SHOWS

COST: FREE!

INCLUDES: two scripts & audience participation

PERFORMANCE LENGTH: 45 min

Campers

Grades: Pre-K-5th grade

Topic: Differences

Mark & Renaldo go on a camping trip. During their time together, Mark learns how Renaldo experiences the world as a visually impaired person.

Tutor Pals

Grades: 1st-4th grade

Topic: Differences

Jennifer has a learning disability & and learns just a bit differently than other people. Jennifer explains and shows her friend Mel techniques that aid her learning.

Shh

Grades: 1st-4th

Topic: Differences

Anna has ADHD and often gets into trouble at school. Anna's friend learns of her difficulty in school and begins to understand why Anna acts the way she does in school.

Problem Solving

Grades: K-5th

Topic: Differences

Brenda and Melody get into an argument over their favorite movie which almost breaks up their friendship. They learn that through working together, they can resolve their differences.

Measuring Cups

Grades: 2nd-5th

Topic: Differences

Ellen Jane has Down Syndrome and learns a little differently than her friends. Ellen Jane is having a bit of difficulty at work. Her friend steps up to aid her and learns more about her friend in the process.

Sticks & Stones

Grades: K-3rd

Topic: Bullying

Eddie comforts his friend after being bullied in school. Eddie's friend learns some tactics in dealing with a name calling bully.

You're Not the Boss of Me

Grades: 2nd-5th

Topic: Bullying

Eddie becomes the target of a school bully and confides in Claire about his feelings. Claire teaches her friend about different ways to deal with a bully.

Rescue & Report

Grades: 3rd-5th

Topic: Bullying

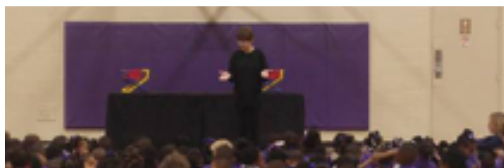

Meloday is upset. Her friend was bullied and Melody wasn't there to help. Melody explains ways to help anyone that is being bullied.

Shake It Up

Grades: 4th & 5th

Topic: Bullying

Nam just got into a fight and is very upset. Nam confides in his friend about his feelings. His friend teach him tactics to calm down thus leading him to react with a clear head.

For Booking Info Email:
1lpkidsontheblock@gmail.com

